JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

SEVENTY-EIGHT (78) MONTHS.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately.

All fines are waived as Daniel does not have the ability to pay a fine and such sanction would unduly burden his dependents.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;
3. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
4. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Officer; and
5. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

USA vs. Craig Darrell DanielDocket No.: CR 08-1134

Defendant is advised of his appeal right.

Government's motion to dismiss the underlying Indictment, as to Defendant Craig Darrell Daniel, is granted.

The Court recommends that the Bureau of Prisons consider defendant's request to be designated to a facility which participates in the 500 Hour Drug Treatment Program (RDAP).

The Court further recommends that the Bureau of Prisons consider defendant's request to receive "time served" credit as of March 11, 2009, the date he was removed from State custody and "writted" into Federal custody.

The Court further recommends that the Bureau of Prisons consider defendant's request that the Bureau of Prisons make an inquiry with the California Department of Corrections as to whether Defendant has any time remaining to be served in connection with Superior Court of California Case Number KA084274 prior to transferring Defendant back to State custody.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
